Meditations . . .

The Lord appeared to Abraham.”
(Genesis 18:1)

Isn’t it mysterious? Genesis 18:1 tells us that “the Lord appeared to Abraham.” But then Abraham saw “three men” (18:2). The visitors were later identified as angels, but one seemed to be the Lord himself (18:20-22). It’s hard to know exactly what Abraham saw and at what point he realized that he was in the presence of Almighty God.

Here’s another mystery: this same Lord will be with everyone gathered at every Mass today. We will hear his voice in the readings and see him in the host and chalice on the altar. So let’s take a look at how Abraham responded to God’s presence to see how we can respond to him today.

First, Abraham gave God his full attention. He stopped what he was doing and “ran” to meet him (Genesis 18:2). As Mass begins, you can imitate Abraham as you try to put aside any distractions and be attentive to the Lord.

Next, he bowed down (Genesis 18:2). While this might have been a traditional greeting, it also showed that Abraham recognized his visitors’ dignity. Imagine yourself bowing low as you pray the Gloria and praise God in the responsorial psalm.

Then, Abraham offered to God the best he had—fine flour and a choice steer (Genesis 18:6-7). When the gifts are brought to the altar, you can offer your life to the Lord. Give him your love and fidelity.

Finally, Abraham waited on his guests (Genesis 18:8). That’s something you can do after Holy Communion, as you pray quietly in adoration. Enjoy your time with the Lord and listen to him.

So remember Abraham when you come into God’s mysterious, surprising presence today. Let the promise of his love fill your heart with reverence. Generously offer him your attention, your worship, the best of who you are. As you do, you’ll come to see him more and more clearly. Just like Abraham.

“Lord, thank you for revealing yourself to me in mystery. Help me to respond to you wholeheartedly!”

HONDURAS PARTNERSHIP DIOCESES COL-LECTION:

This weekend, July 19-20, 2025, we have a second collection for the Honduras Partnership Collection. Please be generous to this worthy cause. God bless you!

The Fruits of Repentance (Part 5):

“God wants to do so much more than forgive us.”

The Sacrament. Finally, we have the Sacrament of Reconciliation. As one of the main avenues of divine grace, this sacrament has the power to remove sin, restore us to God's presence, and give us the experience of a spiritual resurrection. While it may not be as popular as it once was, Confession is a powerful weapon in the spiritual battle. The simple—and at times demanding—act of confessing our sins fully and honestly to a priest is perhaps the most complete and effective way we can open ourselves to the healing, reconciling touch of Jesus. While the first and second methods described above are effective, serious and persistent sin needs this third way. Especially when it is an issue of mortal sin, nothing can bring us face-to-face with the God of mercy and love in quite the same way as this great sacrament of healing.

It is also through the Sacrament of Reconciliation that we are brought back into full communion with all of our brothers and sisters in the church. In a way similar to but even more powerful than the Penitential Rite, Reconciliation has a communal aspect to it. There is no such thing as a completely "private" sin. Each of us is a vital member of the body of Christ. We are all connected to each other, as if in one very large family. And that means that our sins have a negative impact on each other just as one family member's problems affect everyone else. Through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, God wants to assure us not only that we are reconciled with him but with the whole church. He wants to let us know that we have been brought back into the warm embrace of our family and that nothing need hinder our experience of brotherhood and fellowship.
