Meditations . . .

“If you are the Son of God . . .” (Luke 4:3)

Well, that’s one way for the devil to try to trip Jesus up! Get him to doubt his Father’s love and care for him. Come on, Jesus! You’re the Son of God. You don’t need to punish yourself like this. Look, here are some rocks you could use! Or, Son of God? No one will ever believe you—you look like an everyday carpenter. If you want followers, you need to do something dramatic. I know! How about jumping off the roof of the Temple? That will draw people to yourself much more quickly!

But as tempting as all this must have been, Jesus could see through the devil’s twisted logic. Being the Son of God isn’t about special perks and privileges. It isn’t about never going hungry or never being able to walk out the front door without being met by admirers. It’s about being like your Father: pouring yourself out to lift up the wounded. It’s about loving everyone selflessly, even if it means giving up your life on a cross.

As a child of God, you, too, will encounter temptations this Lent. You may be tempted to hold a grudge, to treat someone poorly, or to break your Lenten resolutions—or to commit any number of sins. But no matter what you face, it’s founded on some version of the lie that the devil tried to use on Jesus. It’s the false notion that God is holding something back from you, so you’ll need to bend some rules—or break them—so you can get what you think you need.

As the old saying goes, “Forewarned is forearmed.” So when you find yourself wanting to justify sin, recognize the voice of the tempter and stand firm. When you find yourself doubting God’s goodness, label those thoughts as coming from our enemy, the accuser. And run to Jesus for help. He knows exactly how to overcome the devil!

“Jesus, be my shield and strength in times of temptation!”

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR BISHOP, ALL PRIESTS & OUR SEMINARIANS in our Diocese. May God keep them safe and free from all harm. Amen.
