Meditations . . .

“They saw his glory.” (Luke 9:32)

Picture a split screen of two images of Jesus. On the left is Jesus on Mount Tabor as the three disciples saw him, shining in all his glory (Luke 9:32). On the right is Jesus hanging on the cross in agony, his face and body covered in blood.

Such a contrast can be jarring. How could the Holy One of God, transfigured and radiating his divinity, be the same One who was nailed to a cross, at the mercy of his persecutors, and completely stripped of any semblance of heavenly glory?

We know the answer: Jesus willingly accepted “death, even death on a cross” to save us (Philippians 2:8). He willingly let go of any outward show of his divinity and power out of love for each of us.

Today’s Gospel describing the Transfiguration is a revelation of who Jesus truly is. As Luke describes it, “His face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white” (9:29). It’s an other-worldly glimpse of Jesus, one that was hidden while he walked the earth, but a sign of how he may appear to us one day in heaven.

When we think of Jesus as he was transfigured, it can make us even more grateful for what he was willing to endure for our sake. As the divine Son of God, he could have called on his angels in heaven at any moment and liberated himself from the agony of the cross. At any moment, he could have rained down fire on all those who were trying to kill him. But he didn’t. He loved us so much that he let himself be tortured and crucified. He did it even for the people that had accused and sentenced him!

Today, imagine yourself on Mount Tabor with Peter, John, and James. What does Jesus’ face look like? How bright is his clothing? Think about what you might say to him. Above all, be sure to thank him from the bottom of your heart for being willing to die so that you might live!

“Jesus, let me see your glory today.”

THANK YOU!

We thank you for your generous donations to the Black & Indian Missions/Catholic Extension Society collection, taken up last weekend. God bless you!

PRAYER FOR THE SICK NEEDS UPDATING:

As you may have noticed, our Sunday Bulletin Prayer For The Sick section is becoming longer and longer. There are names that have been on the list for months, and in some cases, for years, without an update of their status. Many of these names are unknown to the parish staff, so it is difficult to do any follow-up. As a reminder, if there is anyone who is listed who has since healed, or in some cases, sadly deceased, please let us know. Of course, those with an ongoing long term illness will remain, until their status changes. In any of these cases, please give us an update, as soon as possible. Thank you and God bless!

“Keeping It Simple”

(Praying This Lent) - Part I

By: Deacon Greg Kandra

Many of us will resolve to pray more—more often or longer, or to attend Lenten devotions weekly.

But what if you had only a minute to give to God? Suppose you had just sixty seconds to tell him what was on your mind. What would you say? What would you want him to know? You don’t have time to be flowery. No time to elaborate or explain. Just spit it out. How would you cut to the chase?

Well, here’s an idea. Start by taking a page from the Gospel according to Luke. Luke tells of a blind man who was able to get the attention of Jesus one day. Jesus, ever the pragmatist, is disarmingly blunt: “What do you want me to do for you?” (Luke 18:41). The man replies in the simplest, most direct way imaginable: “Lord, please let me see” (Luke 18:41).

There you have it. If you are wondering how to begin to pray, how to express what is in your heart, how to express what seems inexpressible, look no further. This is how it is done. The blind man expressing his deepest desire — “Lord, please let me see”—is each of us expressing our own pleadings. Lord, help me understand. Lord, please calm my anxiety. Lord, please make what is wrong, right. Please let me see.
