The Words of Eternal Life - 94

With them indeed is fulfilled the Prophecy of Isaiah which says: "You shall indeed hear but never understand, and you shall indeed see but never perceive. For this people's heart has grown dull, and their ears are heavy of hearing and their eyes they have closed, lest they should perceive with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn for me to heal them."

(Matthew 13:14-15)

Meditations . . .

My word shall not return to me void, but shall do my will, achieving the end for which I sent it.
(Isaiah 55:11)

When it rains in Germany, many parents tell their children, “You’re not made of sugar!” It is a humorous way of encouraging them to go outside in spite of the bad weather. In other countries, people say, “At least the crops are happy!” As today’s first reading suggests, rain and snow help to make soil “fertile and fruitful,” and everything that grows from the earth benefits as well (Isaiah 55:10). In that passage, God compares the effect that the rain and snow have on the soil with the work that his word has on our lives: it “shall do my will” and “[achieve] the end for which I sent it” (55:11).

The Israelites who first heard this prophecy would have heard God’s reassurance that they would truly be brought back from exile and restored to their homeland. As we hear this word today, we can also receive God’s assurance that his word in Scripture can have a good effect on our lives and lead us to our true home.

As water touches soil, it softens the ground and enables seeds to sprout and roots to deepen. So, too, God’s word softens our hearts. Where we might harbor prideful or bitter thoughts, his word opens our eyes to the depth of his love and enables us to let go of those attitudes that hold us back.

Similarly, snow adds to the soil a layer of protection from the extreme cold. And as it melts, it provides a gentle, deep watering for the earth. Likewise, God’s word protects us, even in the most impossible or difficult circumstances, and it establishes us in the truth that he is faithful and trustworthy. Most of all, as it penetrates the deepest places of our heart, his word accomplishes what it set out to do. So ponder God’s word today and every day. Welcome it as the earth welcomes the rain and the snow!

I WILL TRANSFORM YOUR LIFE

“Lord, may your word nourish and transform me today!”

“The Most Beautiful Trait” (Part 2)

So at least in theory, I have come to love humility (though I’m not sure that my wife, Jeannie, always finds me very humble!). And I admire people in the world who walk humbly and care for others before themselves. I’ve been struck watching Pope Leo’s humility during a time when the Lord has propelled him into the spotlight. Or I recall saints like Mother Teresa who served people who are considered the least and the lowest in the world. Every humble disciple teaches me that whatever I do for the least of God’s children, I do for Jesus himself. (to be continued!)
