'I desire mercy,

Meditations . . .

“One’s life does not consist of possessions.”
(Luke 12:15)

“You can’t take it with you.” This common expression might be a good way to sum up Jesus’ parable in today’s Gospel. The landowner had been blessed with a bountiful harvest, so he decided to build larger barns to store his grain. Then he planned a great retirement for himself. But God told him that he would die that very night, “and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?” (Luke 12:20).

It can be so tempting to believe that our lives consist of our possessions. It’s easy to succumb to the constant allure of new “toys” that appear on the market almost daily. The problem is that our desire to fill our lives with more possessions can overshadow our desire for God. We can find ourselves thinking more often about the next “thing” to buy than about our much more pressing need to draw close to God and care for his children in need.

The remedy is not to give away all our possessions—that’s not what Jesus is asking of us. But he does want us to be aware of how much time and money we spend searching for and acquiring new “treasures” for ourselves (Luke 12:21). Even more, he wants us to recognize how this crowds out the time and resources we could spend on being “rich in what matters to God” (12:21).

Everything we have is a gift from God. The man’s bountiful harvest was a gift as well. Instead of trying to store up his grain so that he could “rest, eat, drink, [and] be merry,” he could have blessed those who were less fortunate (Luke 12:19). In the same way, we can ask ourselves, “How can I reflect God’s generosity and share more of my blessings with people in need?” It may mean buying or shopping less; it may mean giving more to people who truly need it. This may not be easy, but it will make us eternally rich in what matters to God!

“Jesus, help me to be generous with all you have given me!”

DIOCESAN PRIESTS’ RETIREMENT COLLECTION:
This weekend, August 2-3, 2025, we have a second collection in benefit of our Diocesan Priests’ Retirement Collection. Many of our priests do not have sufficient income to live on after retirement, so these funds are greatly needed and appreciated. Thank you for your generosity! God bless!

PARISH FESTIVAL 2025
Mark your calendars! Our Parish Festival this year will be on Sunday, October 26th. Dusty & Kristi Greaves will be our Festival Chairs this year. Monetary donations are being requested to cover the cost of the Raffle Prizes, the Silent Auction, and other Festival expenses. An updated list of Raffle prizes will be published later on. Raffle tickets will go on sale, soon after. We hope everyone will sell or purchase tickets! This year’s meal will be a Fajita Dinner. If you are able and willing to help in any part of the Festival, please let Dusty or Kristi know (Dusty: 325-280-2809, Kristi: 325-513-6151). Finalized plans for all the Festival events will be made when the Festival team meets in the very near future—meeting date to be announced later on. As always, the Parish Festival is an “all persons on board.” In addition to being the main fund-raiser for our Parish, it is also a venue for all parishioners to work together in fellowship. Let us show support to Dusty & Kristi as they carry out this very important event for our parish’s benefit. God bless them!
