Meditations . . .

“They have Moses and the prophets.”
(Luke 16:29)

Jesus draws a stark contrast in today’s Gospel between a man who enjoyed his riches but had no concern for others and a poor man, Lazarus, whose life was filled with poverty, suffering, and humiliation. When the rich man died, he was condemned to the “torment” of “flames” in the underworld (Luke 16:24). Lazarus, however, rested peacefully in “the bosom of Abraham” after he passed away (16:22). When the rich man begged Abraham to send Lazarus to warn his brothers about what awaited them, Abraham dismissed his request. “They have Moses and the prophets,” he said. “Let them listen to them” (16:29).

Moses and the prophets. That’s shorthand for the word of God. It’s also a very revealing statement. This parable is not just about the dangers of ignoring the suffering of the poor. It’s also about the importance and power of Scripture. It’s even more powerful than being visited by someone who has been raised from the dead!

This is a troubling story, but it’s also filled with promise. Jesus is telling us that the word of God can change even the hardest of hearts. Through the commandments God gave to Moses, he told us to be kind and generous toward those in need. And through the words of the prophets, he revealed his own heart for those who are vulnerable and neglected. Now he tells us that if we sit with these words and let them sink into our hearts, his Spirit will draw us out of our own selfishness. He will help us reach out of ourselves and share his love and generosity with anyone who is hurting.

What is Jesus saying to you today? Is there a word or phrase from one of today’s Mass readings that is standing out to you? Take that word and ponder it, even if you’re not sure what has drawn you to it. Be patient. Be open. Let almighty God speak to you.

“Lord, open my ears to your word! Open my heart to your call!”

DIOCESAN SEMINARIANS COLLECTION:

This weekend, September 27-28, 2025, we have a second collection in benefit of the Diocesan Seminarians. The Diocese of San Angelo currently has seminarians studying for the priesthood at seminaries throughout the country. If you feel you are being called to a priestly or religious vocation, please contact the Office of Vocations and Seminarians at the Diocesan Pastoral Center. Please be generous to this worthy cause. God bless you!

FR. THOMAS’ INSTALLATION MASS & RECEPTION:

On Sunday, October 19th, Bishop Michael Sis will celebrate the Installation Mass for Fr. Thomas during the 8:30 a.m. Mass here at Sacred Heart Church (Coleman). There will be NO reception afterwards at our Parish, due to time restraint. Bishop Sis will then go to Our Lady of Mount Carmel to do an installation Mass there at 11:00 a.m. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel will host a reception after the Mass. All are welcome to attend any of these two Masses.

This year, Margie Mitchell will be in charge of the Country Store. She is asking for home-made donations of baked goods (cookies, cakes, bread, pies, etc), preserved jams & jellies, salsas, tortillas, as well as hand-crafted items (arts & crafts). All items must be prepared for sale in new or fresh condition. Check with Margie if you need information on your donation—(325) 660-5512.

Breaking Free (Part 3)

"How to pray for healing of memories"

Two Words of Caution. Before we go any further, it’s important that we express two notes of concern. First, we need to be clear that when we talk about healing of memories, we are talking about past hurts that have kept us bound in fear, anger, worry, or bitterness. We are not talking about the minor events that happen on a day-to-day basis as much as we are talking about the more serious events that have had a significant effect on the way we relate to other people.
