But they constrained him, saying "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent." So he went in to stay with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. And their eyes were opened and they recognized him; and he vanished out of their sight."

Meditations . . .

"He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread."

(Luke 24:35)

Have you ever noticed how the story of the two disciples meeting Jesus on the road to Emmaus looks a lot like the way we meet Jesus at every Mass?

At the start, Cleopas and his friend were devastated. Jesus had been crucified, and their hopes were dashed. So when Jesus approached them, "their eyes were prevented from recognizing him" (Luke 24:16). How often do we come to Mass preoccupied? Maybe we had an argument on the way to church, or we're worried about a family problem. These things can keep us from seeing Jesus clearly.

Jesus didn't keep his distance. He drew near and engaged with these two disheartened disciples. Similarly, he welcomes us to Mass as we are and draws near to us. In the Penitential Rite, he offers us his mercy so that we can turn from our sins and refocus our minds on him.

Once Jesus started the conversation with his disciples, he walked them through "what referred to him in all the Scriptures" (Luke 24:27). In the Liturgy of the Word, Jesus teaches us. The readings can open our hearts and minds to God's perfect plan, fulfilled in him.

Although the disciples' hearts were burning as they began to understand the Scriptures, they didn't recognize Jesus until he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread to them. In the Liturgy of the Eucharist, our eyes are opened and our faith deepened as Jesus offers himself to us in Holy Communion!

Next, the two disciples immediately and joyfully returned to Jerusalem to tell their friends. At the end of Mass, we are sent out to "go and announce the Gospel of the Lord." Meeting Jesus changes our hearts, and we can't help but proclaim it.

The next time you're at Mass, imagine that Cleopas and his companion are with you. Share their excitement as, throughout the liturgy, your heart begins to burn with love as you come to recognize Jesus, present in the breaking of the bread.

"Jesus, thank you for making yourself known to me!"
