The Words of Eternal Life - 110

And he said, "With what can we compare the Kingdom of God, or what Parable shall we use for it? It is like a grain of mustard see, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."
(Mark 4:30-32)

Our Monetary Gifts to God Last Week:

We thank you for your continued support to the parish! May God reward your generosity, always. Amen!

Meditations . . .

. . a great multitude, which no one could count.

(Revelation 7:9)

St. John's description of heaven is breathtaking: holy men and women from all over the world joining the angels praising God before his throne! It's also a good scene to contemplate on today's Solemnity of All Saints. We celebrate the saints we know and love—patron saints, Confirmation saints, those our parish is named after—and all the other men and women whose names we may never know. And we remind ourselves that each of us is meant to be a part of this great assembly!

That's because holiness—sanctity—is for everyone. Recalling the Second Vatican Council's universal call to holiness, Pope Leo XIV said, "Holiness . . . is not a privilege for the few, but a gift that requires every baptized person to strive for . . . the fullness of love towards God and towards one's neighbor" (Audience, April 8, 2026).

You were born to be a saint! But that doesn't mean you need to be exactly the same as any one saint, like Francis of Assisi or Mother Teresa. Do you remember that multitude "from every nation, race, people, and tongue" (Revelation 7:9)? God has destined you to be a saint in your own place and time, in your own vocation, according to the shape of your life. Your circumstances will guide your path to holiness. As the Council fathers put it, "The classes and duties of life are many, but holiness is one" (Lumen Gentium, 41). The one thing every saint has in common is that they let the Lord lead them as they grow in love for him and for the people around them.

How encouraging! The way we get there might differ, but our destination is the same: heaven, where we will praise God with that "great multitude"!

"Jesus, help me to follow you so that I can join all the saints in heaven!"

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!:
We wish to express our gratitude and appreciation to the 2026 Fall Festival Chair, Kristi Greaves, and all the Festival Crew. It was through your hard work and dedication to this fund-raiser that this year we are happy to announce that the proceeds are around $21,000 (perhaps, more!). The exact amount will be determined once all final expenses are calculated. Special thanks go to Dusty Greaves and his helpers, including our Parish Youth, for the wonderful meal prepared and served for the Festival. We also thank Becky Slayton for the coordination of the outdoor activities which were enjoyed by all, especially the youngsters on the bouncing castle and other children's games! The Raffle winners will also be listed in next weekend's Sunday Bulletin, as well as the exact earnings for that day. Again, we thank Kristi and all the volunteers who helped in any way - selling and buying. May God bless each one of you for all you do for our Parish.
