Mission Statement for Sacred Heart Catholic Church

We, the People of God, members of Sacred Heart Church in Coleman, Texas, are brought together through baptism and nourished in Eucharist, to respond to God's invitation to holiness and sacramental life - building a Kingdom to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ. As a people, with a variety of backgrounds and cultures, we seek to work together in unity, love, peace and justice - serving the community of Coleman County and the world-wide community.

The Words of Eternal Life - 81

Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side; do not be faithless, but believing."
Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"
(John 20:27-28)

Meditations . . .

“ . . . in his great mercy.”
(1 Peter 1:3)

As he opens his letter, St. Peter blesses God, whose “great mercy” has given us “a new birth” (1 Peter 1:3). On this Divine Mercy Sunday, let’s look at some of the blessings that God’s mercy has won for us.

A living hope (1 Peter 1:3). Jesus, risen in glory, has opened heaven! We aren’t doomed to a life of hopelessness marked by sin and death. Now freed from these forces, we can live every day in the sure knowledge that the God of heaven is walking with us. We can know a living hope that assures us that we can be “transformed . . . from glory to glory” as we stay connected to him (2 Corinthians 3:18).

An inheritance that is imperishable (1 Peter 1:4). Just as parents leave their children an inheritance, Jesus has left one for us—an imperishable one. Silver and gold, valuable though they may be, can give us only earthly security. But Jesus has left us with the gifts of faith, hope, and love, and these last forever (1 Corinthians 13:13). They sustain us and lift us up in good times and in bad, in plenty and in need. They bind us to the God who loves us without end.

A salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time (1 Peter 1:5). We often look at divine mercy as a gift for today, but God takes a longer view as well. He promises that in “the final time,” at the very end, he has a great salvation waiting for us. As we enter into eternity, “we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is” (1 John 3:2). All pain, suffering, temptation, sadness, and sin will be wiped away, and we will enter the new creation to live forever in the presence of the Lord.

A living hope. An imperishable inheritance. A final salvation. Our God is merciful beyond compare. May we never cease to praise him!

“Jesus, my Savior, I am in awe of your overflowing mercy!”

“LOVE ONE ANOTHER, AS I HAVE LOVED YOU.” (John:34)

Part XIII

[Excerpt from The Word Among Us]

Jim and Monica Murphy were devoted parents.

We can participate in a practical way in the Spirit’s work not only to unite the divided body of Christ, but also to bring the power and the hope of the gospel to the whole world. We suggest the following ways as good starting points:

* Every morning, consecrate yourself and your family to the Lord. Ask his love to reign over you.

* At the end of the day, ask the Spirit to help you reflect on attitudes of your heart toward the people with whom you came into contact: “How can I more fully love as Jesus loves?”

* Learn about ways God has worked in other churches and Christian traditions. Read a book about an exemplary Christian, such as John Wesley, Corrie Ten Boom, or Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

* During the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25), ask the Lord to bless every Christian in every church, that we would all know the love of our heavenly Father more fully. Immense power can flow from such prayer!

* Finally, as the Council Fathers stated, “In all things let charity prevail” (Decree on Ecumenism, 4). Let love reign rather than judgment. Let joy and friendship push away fear in our hearts.

“O Lord, let us be one as you and the Father are one!”

THANK YOU!

The Parish Youth would like to thank all who contributed and/or helped with the Easter Egg Hunt this past Easter Sunday. God bless you for all you do for our Parish Youth!

DIVINE MERCY NOVENA:

The Divine Mercy Novena, which began on Good Friday, ends today, DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY (April 12, 2026). We are encouraged to pray this Novena in the Church, or in your homes, throughout the year, to continue to ask for blessings and guidance at all times of our lives.

DONATIONS APPRECIATED:

Our Parish grounds and facilities have been steadily wearing down over the years, and are now in great need of repair or renovation. The Church has been settling over the years and has caused cracks which must be repaired. Our insurance company has sent reports of what must be done to bring these facilities into compliance. The East & West side doors are also in desperate need of maintenance. Volunteers and/or donations are greatly needed. If anyone is able to help with whatever amount you can donate, it would be much appreciated and helpful. Please contact Fr. Thomas, or the Parish Office if you wish to help in some way. Thank you and God bless!
