Meditations . . .

“Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” (Luke 23:42)

Every year on Holy Thursday, the king or queen of England distributes gifts to various men and women who have demonstrated “outstanding Christian service” by making a difference in the lives of their local communities.

This image of a good and generous king is appropriate today, even if it isn’t Holy Thursday! That’s because today marks one hundred years since Pope Pius XI established the feast of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Today, instead of considering an earthly king, we turn our attention to the “King of kings and Lord of lords” (Revelation 19:16), whose “kingdom will have no end” (Nicene Creed).

Jesus, our King, came to give us greater gifts than any gift an earthly king could ever give. In today’s Gospel, in fact, we see him giving the gift of eternal life to the “good thief” who is crucified next to him. Then, dying on the cross, he gave us the greatest gift: his own life for our salvation. And from that point on, he has been continuously offering us his love, mercy, and forgiveness. As Pope Pius XI proclaimed, Jesus came, “not to be ministered unto but to minister,” and to give himself “as a model of humility” (Quas Primas, 20). What a wonderful King we have!

When the thief on the cross asked Jesus to remember him, Jesus promised, “Today you will be with me in Paradise” (Luke 23:43). Let’s follow this man’s example and honor our King by surrendering our lives to him. Let’s open our hands and receive his overflowing gifts of mercy, love, and forgiveness. Most of all, let’s praise our King for giving us the greatest gift of all: eternal life!

“Lord Jesus Christ, you are my King. I surrender my life to you.”

THANK YOU!

We thank you for your generous donations to the Campaign for Human Development, taken up last weekend. God bless you!

HOLY HOUR & ADORATION:

On Thanksgiving Day (November 27th), there will be NO Holy Hour & Adoration from 3-5 p.m. There will only be an 8:30 a.m. Mass on this day. Holy Hour Schedule will resume as usual next week.

CHRISTMAS BASKETS:

The Parish Youth will sponsor their annual Christmas Baskets for those in our parish who are experiencing economical difficulties. If you know of individuals, or families who could benefit from a Christmas basket (which will consist of a turkey, with food items to complete a meal), please let us know. The Youth are asking for food donations to help with this project. As in years past, the Guadalupe Society will be donating the turkeys. There will also be a poster displayed in the Vestibule with specific items they will be needing, and a deadline for bringing the items. For more information, please contact Angel Barrios at (325) 214-5655, or Caitlin Barrios at (325) 214-5272.

Breaking Free

Breaking Free: "How to pray for healing of memories" (Part 7)

In most cases, praying for healing is less about skill than it is about love and compassion. Many people have been healed simply because of the care and concern shown by the person praying with them. Sometimes a healing touch, a warm word of encouragement, or the gift of another person’s presence is all that is needed to set us free from the pain of the past.

It’s All about Unity. We want to emphasize that Jesus himself brought great healing and reconciliation when he walked the earth. He brought together twelve apostles and countless other disciples—all very different people—and used them to form a new community of faith. Through his Spirit, he healed rifts among the apostles, between Gentiles and Jews, rich and poor, men and women (Galatians 3:27-29).

PARISH CHRISTMAS PARTY:

Please mark your calendars for our Parish Christmas Party, which is scheduled for Sunday, December 14th after the Mass at 11 a.m. (not 8:30 a.m.!). Parishioners will be asked to please bring side dishes to complement the main dish (Turkey and ham). Desserts are especially requested! Join us in celebrating fellowship and good food! See you there!

Note: This year, let us be mindful of those who are unable to attend our annual Christmas party, due to health or disability. Offer to give them a ride to and from our party, or at the very least prepare a plate to deliver to them later. They are still and will always remain, part of our Parish family! God bless you, always!

OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE NOVENA:

The Our Lady of Guadalupe Novena will begin on Tuesday, December 2, 2025. The schedule is as follows:

*All Novena days will be at 5:30 p.m. inside the Church, with the exception of Thursday, December 4th, and Saturday December 6th—the Novena will be at 5:00 p.m. These times may change, and if so, everyone will be notified in advance. It will end with the Mañanitas at 7:30 a.m. on Friday, December 12th, followed by Mass at 8:30 a.m. For more information, contact Natalie Jones at (325) 636-7384. All are invited to participate.
