Meditations . . .

“The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”

(John 6:51)

Today we celebrate the feast of Corpus Christi, the Body and Blood of Christ. We stand in awe that Jesus makes himself truly and entirely present in the Eucharist. We marvel at the glorious mystery that the Divine Son of God not only became a man and offered himself on the cross but that he also comes to us, Body and Blood, soul and divinity, so that we can receive him into our own bodies in Communion.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus is early in his ministry, but he is already pointing people toward his Last Supper, passion, and death. He tells them that just as God had fed his people Israel with manna in the desert, he would feed them. But Jesus is not speaking only about physical bread and the miraculous multiplication of the loaves (John 6:1-15). He is promising the “food that endures for eternal life” (6:27). He is proclaiming that he himself is “the living bread that came down from heaven” and that he will give them his own “flesh for the life of the world” (6:51).

Two thousand years later, we encounter this same Jesus at every Eucharist. What a glorious gift! He offered his Body and Blood on the cross to save us, and now he gives us that same Body and Blood on the altar.

At Mass today, as the priest lifts up the Host, fix your eyes and heart on Jesus. As you pray, “Lord, I am not worthy,” trust in the mercy of your crucified Savior. As you come forward to receive Jesus, proclaim your faith in his true, Real Presence in what was once only bread and wine. And as you kneel in grateful prayer, praise and thank him for giving his life to you and offering himself for the whole world.

*“Lord Jesus,
I believe you are truly present in the Eucharist.
I adore you and I give my life
to you.”*

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS:

It has always been our practice to publish parish events in the Sunday Bulletin, given enough time to do so. We remind our parishioners that ALL parish events should be announced so everyone can be informed—not just those immediately affected. As such, we are reminded that events, special notifications, etc. should be brought (in writing please, or email) to the Parish Office by Wednesday of each week by the group or individual in charge of said event. This gives enough time for these notifications to be published in time. We are also reminded that these events should be approved by the Pastor, BEFORE, they are announced or published—not at the last minute. Take the time to speak with Fr. Thomas when you wish something to be announced or published—and give him sufficient time to review your request or notification. Once Fr. Thomas approves your request, please make certain that you give the Parish Office this information for publication. We thank you for your full cooperation.

MASS INTENTIONS NEEDED:

There are several openings for weekend and weekday Masses (especially for weekdays). Please contact the Parish Office during regular office work days/hours to schedule Masses for your loved ones, or any other special intention you might have. Thank you!

SCHOOL IS OUT AND SUMMER TIME IS UPON US!

What to do? For our youngsters there is much that can be done for our Parish Community. Many of our working adults are being stretched to their limits with the many projects being carried out on our parish facilities. How about a rotation of volunteer youths who can help with the yard maintenance? The parish is fortunate enough to own a riding mower! Contact Sammy Cortez at (325) 214-4114 if you wish to volunteer. God bless you for all you do for our parish!

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE INCREASE OF VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD & RELIGIOUS LIFE, ESPECIALLY IN OUR SAN ANGELO DIOCESE.
