Meditations . . .

*“The Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity.”
(Exodus 34:6)*

If you had to describe God in just a few words, what would you say? In today’s first reading, God gives us his own answer: “merciful and gracious” and “slow to anger and rich in kindness” (Exodus 34:6). So on this feast of the Holy Trinity, let’s celebrate the fact that God has revealed himself in such a moving way.

“Father, I praise you because you are always in control. Your plans can’t be deterred by the schemes of any enemy. I am your child, loved and cherished, called and set apart for you, and I know I can rest in you. I trust you, I worship you, and I thank you for drawing me and my loved ones close to you.

“Jesus, you revealed the humility of God when you came to us as a child under the authority of a mother and a father. Because of your lowliness, I’m not afraid to acknowledge my weakness and littleness. You showed us how important it is to obey your heavenly Father when you stayed behind in Jerusalem as an independent preteen. You showed it again when you humbly submitted to John’s baptism, resisted the temptations of the devil, and emptied yourself on the cross. Because of you, I can say yes to my Father. I can resist temptation. I can even bring your love and healing to those around me.

“Holy Spirit, you are the glory of God who has been poured out to give us a glimpse of heaven. You are the One who transforms and comforts me. I am so grateful that you are with me and in me as I walk this journey on earth. Thank you for filling me, dwelling in me, teaching me, and guiding me every day of my life. Come and fill me afresh today!”

*“I praise you,
Father,
Son,
and Holy Spirit!”*

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS:

It has always been our practice to publish parish events in the Sunday Bulletin, given enough time to do so. We remind our parishioners that ALL parish events should be announced so everyone can be informed—not just those immediately affected. As such, we are reminded that events, special notifications, etc. should be brought (in writing please, or email) to the Parish Office by Wednesday of each week by the group or individual in charge of said event. This gives enough time for these notifications to be published in time. We are also reminded that these events should be approved by the Pastor, BEFORE, they are announced or published—not at the last minute. Take the time to speak with Fr. Thomas when you wish something to be announced or published—and give him sufficient time to review your request or notification. Once Fr. Thomas approves your request, please make certain that you give the Parish Office this information for publication. We thank you for your full cooperation.
